

Contents

Acknowledgements	XI
Foreword	XXVII
Events that led to the writing of this book	XXXI
Author's Preface	XLVII
Introduction	XLIX
Brief presentation on Bön	XLIX
Scope of this book	L
A word on terminology	LII
Dubious legacy of the term 'Shamanism'	LIV
Buryatian Bø Murgel as a key to understanding the secrets of Prehistoric Bön of Eurasia	LVI
Difficulties facing the researcher of Bø and shamans	LVII
Drawing a line between shamanistic traditions and Yungdrung Bön	LX
CHAPTER I
Historical Backdrop to Bön and Bø	1
Part I: The Lands of Bön	1
1. Lands of Prehistoric Bön of Eurasia	1
2. Lands of Yungdrung Bön	3
Tagzig	3
The Zhang Zhung Confederation	7
India	22
China	23
Sumpa	25
Tibet – Country of Bön	26
Yungdrung Bön in the West	58
Part II: The Lands of Bø Murgel	59
Pre-history	59
Bronze and Iron Age cultures	60
Hunnu period	62
Syanbi period	67
Sumbe	68
Post-Sumbe Syanbi states	69
Tyurkic period	70
Tureg	71

Hor	73
Kyrgyz Khaganate	74
Mongolian period	76
Liao	76
Altan Tzin (Jin)	78
Mongols	79
Ih Mongol Uls – The Great Mongol Empire	93
Mongols and Bø Murgel after Chingis Khaan	105
The peoples and history of Buryatia and the development of Buryatian Bø Murgel	105
Main Buryatian tribes and clans	107
The conquest of Buryatia	108
The arrival of Buddhism in Buryatia	112
The modern era	115
Conclusion	118
CHAPTER II
Sacred Geography of Lake Baikal	119
Baikal as a geographical and geological feature	119
Baikal as a spiritual feature	120
Conclusion	125
CHAPTER III
Different Types of Bön	129
Clarifying the term ‘bön’	129
Three types of Bön in Zhang Zhung and Tibet	130
1. Prehistoric Bön of Tibet and the coming of Tonpa Shenrab	130
2. Yungdrung Bön	133
3. New Bön	144
Bön Sarma, Tibetan Buddhism and Yungdrung Bön	149
Mixed Bön traditions of the Himalayas and Tibetan borderlands	152
Tamu Priests	153
Dhami priests of Humla	155
Erroneous classifications of Bön	158
Bø Murgel as a Mixed Bön tradition	159
End of baseless rumour	161
Setting aside sectarian tensions	162
CHAPTER IV
Cosmology	163
Part I: Cosmological Model of Buryatian Bø Murgel	163
General structure of the universe	163
Bø Murgel creation myth	164
The Three Worlds and their inhabitants	172
The Upper World	173
The Middle World	177
Totems and protective deities of the four major

Buryatian tribes	179
Notes to the Table:	181
The Underworld	181
Conclusion	182
Part II: Bönpo Cosmological Model	183
Creation of the universe from primeval eggs	183
Dualism of Light and Darkness: the polar forces of Ye and Ngam	186
The structure of our universe	188
The triple world system	188
Beings of the Six Realms of Rebirth according to Yungdrung Bön	190
The Multiverse	200
Bönpo cosmology and the cosmology of the Abhidharma of Vasubandhu	205
Part III: Common Aspects of the Cosmologies of	209
Bø Murgel and Bön	209
The beginnings of the universe	209
The structure of the universe	211
Primordial Males and Primordial Females	213
The sacredness of number nine in cosmological models	215
 CHAPTER V
Classes of Gods and Spirits	217
Thirty-Three Races of Gods and Spirits	217
Eight Classes of Gods and Spirits	220
Protectors of Yungdrung Bön	220
Sidpai Gyalmo	221
Midüü Jampa Trakgo	223
Apse	223
Gyalpo Sheltrab	224
Nyipangse and Menmo	225
Dzamgon	226
Dragpa Senge	226
Gods and spirits in Bø Murgel	228
Sky-dwelling gods in Bön and Bø Murgel	228
Eternal conflict: Lha versus Död and White Tengeri versus Black Tengeri	229
Drala and Tengeri	231
Black Tengeri and Död	234
Mystical eagles in Bön and Bø Murgel	235
The concept of Owners in Bön	239
Owners in the Kabtse diagram	240
Owners of the Four Directions and the Centre	242
Owners of the Elements	243
Yullha/Yulsa and Zhidag	244
The concept of Owners in Buryatian Bø Murgel	245

CHAPTER VI

Gods of the Prehistoric Bön of Eurasia in the Religions of Ancient Central Asia	249
Hormusta and Nyipangse	249
Hormusta	249
Nyipangse	250
Parallels between Nyipangse and Hormusta	253
Parallels with Indra	253
Nyipangse and Pehar	254
Common characteristics	254
Differences	255
Reconstruction of the history and origins of Pehar	255
Origins of the word ‘pehar’	260
Integration into the Buddhist pantheon	264
Location of the country of Phrom/Throm	265
Note on the origin of the Gesar epic and the name ‘gesar’	272
Gesar as Keresaspa	276
Xwrmzt (Hurmazta) and Hormusta Tengeri	277
Proto-Indo-Iranian Pantheon	279
Yazatas and Tengeri	284
Proto-Indo-Iranian gods, Vedic gods and the Tengeri	289
An Ancient Greek connection	291
Hormusta Tengeri and the proto-Indo-Iranian gods	292
Agni and the role of fire	297
Zurvanism	299
Cosmology and pantheon of the Prehistoric Bön of Eurasia	302
Yungdrung Bön and Zoroastrianism	303
Erroneous equation of Zoroastrianism and Mithraism with Yungdrung Bön	304
Deities of Yungdrung Bön and Zoroastrianism	306
Chronology of Shenrab Miwo and Zarathushtra	309

CHAPTER VII

Transmission and Initiation in Buryatian Bø Murgel	311
Utkha: the spiritual lineages of the Bø and Utgan	311
Different types of utkha	312
The holy families of Yungdrung Bön and Tibetan Buddhism	315
Common features of family lineages	318
Ongon Daralga – the ‘pressure of the Ongon-spirits’ or ‘shamanic disease’	319
Who can become a Bø or Utgan?	321
New Age shamans	323
First initiation	326
Nine initiations	328
Initiation among Utgan	334
Significance of the number nine	335
Summary	335

CHAPTER VIII

Different Types of Bø, their Functions and Ritual Gear	337
Different ways of classifying White and Black Bø	337
White Bø	338
Black Bø	339
Universal Bø	340
Bø-smiths	341
Ooselshen-clairvoyants and Uligershen-bards	342
Costume	343
1. Maihabshi	344
2. Malgai	345
3. Orgoi	345
Hooyag	345
Head band	346
Mask	346
Ritual Objects	346
1. Toli-mirror	347
2. Hese-drum and toibor, dohyuur drumsticks.	348
3. Hor'bo-canes	349
4. Sword	349
5. Ho'orto-dagger	350
6. Hootaga-knife	350
7. Whip	350
8. Bow and arrow	350
9. Zhada-spear	350
10. Zhodo'o	350
11. Huur-mouth harp	350
12. Zeli-rope	351
13. Shere'e-altar	351
14. Ongon images	351
15. Hahyuusan amulets	351
16. Bø-hete flint stone	351
17. Shanginuur-bell	351
18. San hengereg-cymbals	352
19. Prayer beads	352
20. Tobacco pouch and pipe	352

CHAPTER IX

Cult of the Sky	353
Spiritual essence of the Sky	353
Mu-cord, Mu-ladder and the rainbow-bridge	353
Sacred bodies of water as the mirrors of the Sky	355
The cult of the Drala sky-gods before and in the time of Shenrab Miwo	357
Nine Weapons and Armour of the Drala and the Bø's ritual apparel	361
Conclusion	366

CHAPTER X

Heavenly Deer	367
Tracing the ancient Deer Cult in the Prehistoric Bön
of Eurasia	367
White Deer	370
Deer Cult in Russia	373
Deer Goddess in Tungus and Nganasan cosmology	375
Heavenly origins	376
Deer Cult in Bø Murgel and Prehistoric Bön of Tibet	377
Galloping on the Deer	378
Transformation into the sacred Deer in Russian folktales and shamanic lore	380
Deer drums and magical flight	381
The Heavenly Deer as a living deity	383
The Bön of the Deer from the system of the Twelve Lore	383
Conclusion	388

CHAPTER XI

Purification Rituals	389
Concepts of purity and pollution and the need for purification rites	389
Lustral sprinkling rituals	394
White Tsen	394
Red Tsen	397
'Body-washing' rites in Bø Murgel	399
Fumigation rituals	400
Sang	400
Aryuud haha	403
Comparative study of purification rituals	405
Sang and Aryuud haha	406
Tsentrü and Uhan Tarim	407
Intermediate link: purification technique from the Lurol festival of Rebkong	410
Conclusion	412

CHAPTER XII

Offering Rituals	415
Part I: Ritual Offerings in Buryatian Bø Murgel	415
The nine main cults of Bø Murgel	415
Offering rituals in Buryatian Bø Murgel	418
Individual and family rituals	418
Collective and public offering rituals	419
Animal sacrifices	420
Tailgan	421
General structure and stages of tailgan	421
Eye-witness accounts	422
Mixed Bø Murgel-Buddhist tailgans	428

Part II: Lurol Festival in Rebkong	433
Introduction to Rebkong public offering rituals of the lhapa	433
Meaning and purpose of Lurol	433
The Myth of Origin and historical background of Lurol of Sogri	434
The Lurol festival and Buryatian tailgans	435
Preliminary stage	435
The shrine and the gods	435
Lhachukha rite	437
Conclusion of the festival	438
Offerings	439
Conclusion	441
Part III: Comparative Study of the Offering Techniques in Yungdrung Bön and Buryatian Bø Murgel	442
Ideological base for the Four Offering Rituals in Yungdrung Bön	442
Four Guests and offering substances suitable for them	442
Time and support substance for the offerings	445
Sur and its parallel in Buryatian Bø Murgel	448
Offerings to water-spirits	449
Sangchö	460
Method of Chöd	475
Tsokchö and Tailgan	489
General principles and structure of Tsokchö	489
Differences in the view and approach to ritual offerings in Bø Murgel and Yungdrung Bön	493
Offering rituals as an integral part of the Nine Ways	493
Pacts with the local gods and guardians	494
Differences in the content of offerings	498
Views on the practice of blood sacrifice	501
Bloodless rituals of animal dedication	515
 CHAPTER XIII
The Soul	519
Part I: Soul and Related Concepts	519
The concepts of la, yi and sem, tse and sog in Yungdrung Bön	519
The understanding of soul in Prehistoric Bön	523
La, wug and sog	524
Multiple souls in Bø Murgel	525
i. Hain hunehen or zayaashi	525
ii. Dunda Hunehen	526
iii. Mu Hunehen	531
iv. Amin	531
v. Hulde	532
Comparative concepts relating to the soul in Bø Murgel and Bön	534
Cha and hulde	534
Wind Horse	537

Zalaa	544
Hesheg and Yang aspects of Hulde and Cha	547
Hurylha, Dalalga and Tsokchö	550
External receptacles of la/dunda hunehen	553
Bear transformation techniques in Bø Murgel and the pre-Taoist religion of China	555
Summary	557
PART II: Post-Mortem Fate of the Soul	558
Post-mortem destiny in Bø Murgel	558
‘Newly’ dead	560
Gooideg and other dangerous spirits	560
Twilight World	561
World of the Ancestors	562
World of Erlig Khaan	562
Factors determining the post-mortem destiny of the hunehen	563
The post-mortem fate as understood in Yungdrung Bön	574
Conclusion	581
CHAPTER XIV
Healing and Magic	583
Part I: Theoretical Base	583
Understanding of the causes for illness and death
in Bø Murgel	583
Damage and loss of the soul	583
Understanding of the causes for illness and death in
Yungdrung Bön: the concept of karma	587
Understanding of the causes of illness and death in the Bön of Cause	587
Causes of disease according to Bum Zhi	588
Understanding of the causes of illness and death in the Bön of Fruit	590
Healing and magic in the context of the gradual path
of Yungdrung Bön	594
Part II: Divination, Diagnostics and Healing Techniques	601
Divination	601
Divination methods in Buryatian Bø Murgel	601
Divination methods in Yungdrung Bön	605
Diagnosis	613
Diagnosis in Bø Murgel	613
Medical diagnosis in Yungdrung Bön	614
Healing	615
Healing methods used by the Bø and Utgan	615
Healing techniques in Yungdrung Bön	620
Part III: Buryatian Bø and Tibetan Medium-Healers and Oracles	622
Buryatian mediums	622
Tibetan lhapa/pawo mediums and Buryatian Bø	628
Tibetan State Oracle and Buryatian Bø	631
Tibetan Buddhist Oracles	631

Stages of the ritual trance of Tibetan Buddhist
medium-priests and Buryatian Bø	632
Ritual apparel of Tibetan State Oracles and Buryatian Bø	634
Conclusion	636
Part IV: Retrieving and Ransoming the Soul	637
Rites for retrieving the soul	638
Hunehen Hurylha	638
Lalu and Lagug	640
Comparison of Bø Murgel and Bönpo soul
retrieving rituals	642
Buryatian and Tibetan ransom rituals Dolë and Lüd	645
Introduction	645
Buryatian Dolë rites	646
Tibetan ransom rituals	651
Tibetan rituals of human ransom and Hun Dolë	653
Part V: Exorcism of Negativities connected with Death	660
The rite of exorcising Gooideg	660
The rite of vanquishing the Shed	662
Conclusion	665
Part VI: Destructive Magic	666
Magic powers of the Bø and Bönpo	666
Magic combat: black magic assault and countermeasures	669
Magical action targeting soul-receptacles	669
Offensive and counter magic in Buryatia	672
Destructive magic of Bø-smiths	675
Magical combat in the form of animals	676
Bø – Buddhist rivalry	677
Buryatian Zya, Magar Zyā and Bönpo
Ted destructive magic	680
Offering rituals and magic related to the gods of the
Underworld in the Prehistoric Bön of Eurasia	683
Conclusion	687
CHAPTER XV
Spread of Bön in Eurasia	689
The ancient beginnings	689
B.G. Tilak’s Arctic Home Theory and the
Prehistoric Bön of Eurasia	689
The Arctic as the cradle of humanity	692
Symbology of the swastika	695
Evidence of proto-Mongol north-south migration	699
Tonpa Shenrab Miwo and Yungdrung Bön in the context of prehistory	702
The spread of Prehistoric Bönpo culture in Eurasia	706
The spread of Prehistoric Bön in Siberia, Central and
East Asia	712
Zhuns and Zhang Zhung	715
Initial spread of the various types of Bön to, from and around Zhang Zhung	720

Languages and multinational culture of Zhang Zhung	720
Eastern and Western vectors along which Bönpo culture was distributed in Zhang Zhung	724
Southward spread of Prehistoric Bön along the borders of Zhang Zhung	727
Spread of Yungdrung Bön within Zhang Zhung and beyond	727
Spread of Bön from the Tibetan Plateau into the Great Steppe, Europe, Mongolia and Siberia	729
Hunnu	729
Sumpa and Syanbi, Azha and Tuyuhun	731
Could the ancient lineage of Bönpo Dzogchen have survived in Buryatia?	736
Spread of Tibetan Bön in the Great Steppe and Southern Siberia in the Tyurkic period	738
Spread of Yungdrung Bön into the Great Steppe and Siberia from Tibet due to persecutions	740
Conclusion	746
Appendix	749
Glossary of Buryatian, Tibetan and Sanskrit Terms and Concepts	753
Bibliography	775
Index	795
List of Illustrations and Maps	819